BIOGRAPHY

Antoine Haddad, MD, is a Staff Physician in the Medical Subspecialties Institute at Cleveland Clinic Abu Dhabi. He specializes in a number of areas, including upper respiratory conditions, hypertension and diabetes management.

Prior to joining Cleveland Clinic Abu Dhabi, Dr. Haddad held the position of Director of Internal Medicine and Urgent Care at Bikhazi Medical Group, a private hospital in Beirut, Lebanon. During his 16-year tenure there, he served as Medical Director and Chief of Staff, and was also a clinical instructor in out-patient medicine at the American University of Beirut.

In 2008, Dr. Haddad joined Harvard Vanguard, a large multi-specialty medical group in Cambridge, Massachusetts. He has also worked as a hospitalist at Mount Auburn Hospital in Cambridge, Massachusetts, and as an Assistant Clinical Professor of Internal Medicine at University Medical Center of Southern Nevada in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Dr. Haddad graduated from the University of Southern California School of Medicine in 1987, and completed his internship at White Memorial Medical Center in Los Angeles, California. He completed his last two years of residency in Internal Medicine at the University of Nevada School of Medicine in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Dr. Haddad is an avid reader and a sports enthusiast. He is a firm believer in physical activity as a key to overall health, having maintained an active lifestyle over the length of his professional career.
